OSA-1823-63

18 April 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Personnel Branch, OSA

SUBJECT :

(Requirement for utilization of POV)

[REDACTED]

2. The very nature of this assignment makes it imperative that [REDACTED] have an automobile available at any hour of the day or night, seven days a week. Both [REDACTED] [REDACTED] can be called upon at any hour to travel from their home or place of business on security assignments. An example of such an assignment would be to immediately contact an individual who is leaking information pertaining to these ultra-sensitive projects. Another instance would be to immediately get to the airport to debrief a pilot of a commercial airliner who sighted the "O" vehicle.

3. The need for the continuing utilization of this officer's POV is justified beyond question. In fact if [REDACTED] [REDACTED] did not have his personally owned vehicle available, he would not be utilized on this assignment. A condition precedent to his selection was the possession of a valid drivers license and the availability of such transportation for this specific purpose.
